Occupied Unit Release - Carpet

I understand that Brock Interiors, Inc. will move these items when installing new flooring in my unit:

Stripped mattress/box springs	Dressers	Coffee tables
Night stands	Chairs	Desks
Tables	Love seats	Bookcases (empty)
End tables	Sofas	China cabinets (empty)

I also understand Brock Interiors, Inc. will not move these items when installing new flooring in my unit:

Televisions/stereos	Antiques	Breakables
Lamps and glassware	Shoes	Waterbeds
Cash/jewelry	Boxes	Aquariums
Magazines/books	Vases/knickknacks	Valuables
Dog/cat boxes or dishes	Clock radios	Computers
Electronic equipment	Clothes	Wall hangings

Further, I understand that all flooring areas must be clear. The entire new carpet area must be clear in order to ensure a tight stretch. Any furnishings that won't fit into areas not being replaced must be moved onto the balcony or somewhere outside the unit while the new flooring is being installed. I understand that I must provide security for these items.

I also understand that the utmost care will be taken by Brock Interiors, Inc. when moving my furniture, and that incidental nicks and scratches are possible. I will not hold Brock Interiors, Inc. responsible for minor nicks and scratches. In the event any furniture is seriously damaged, I understand that Brock Interiors, Inc. will, at their discretion, repair or tender a settlement equal to the present value of the damaged item. The settlement will not be for full replacement of the item.
